

We strive to achieve excellence in all services that are provided, however we are a training establishment, we cannot guarantee your treatment will be the standard you would receive in a high street salon. Your treatment may not run to time, may have to be adapted and we cannot guarantee you will always have the same therapist. This is reflected in the price of our treatments, and we do our up-most to provide you with an outstanding service.

Thank you for supporting us here at 'The Beauty School'
