

Subject: Child Development and Care:
Topic: Types of settings and local provision for children.

Holistic development

Key vocabulary:

- Statutory
- Voluntary
- Private
- Independent
- Provision
- Funding
- Curriculum
- Assessment
- Holistic development

Summary of key information:

- Types of provision for children
- Funding for different types of services.
- Differences between the main types of provision.
- EYFS curriculum requirements – prime areas of learning and development
- Assessing children's needs through observation – observation methods
- Reporting and recording
- Holistic development– recap the expected patterns of children's development
- The importance of meeting the individual needs of children

Example of exam questions related to this topic:

Describe the main types of settings available for children.

Explain the difference between observation and assessment

Explain the term 'holistic development'

Identify the four areas of development

Identify a suitable observation method to monitor a child's gross motor physical skills development.

Homework this half term- make sure all assessment tasks are completed to meet the deadlines you are given.

Ensure you understand different types of early years' provision, their roles and sources of funding. The work in this topic forms part of your written coursework and will also be tested in an exam toward the end of the course

For your knowledge quiz you should be able to answer the following questions:

- What are the main differences between statutory and private provision for children.
- Give examples of national and local voluntary organisations for children.
- Give an example of private provision for 1-2 year olds.
- Give an example of statutory provision for 4-5 year olds.
- Identify the prime areas of learning and development within the EYFS
- Explain how observations can be used to identify the individual needs of children.
- Who have the right to be informed of children's assessed development needs?
- Expected norms of development in each of four areas
- The meaning of holistic development

Tasks you could complete to help you revise this topic:

- * Ensure you understand key words and phrases
- Read handouts
- Refer to PowerPoint presentations posted on Google Classroom
- Research using text-books and the internet to understand types of provision, their differences, local provision and the services they provide for children and their families.
- Complete written assessment tasks.

Head over to Google Classroom to find a range of revision resources and activities to help you understand