

Fortnightly Newsletter for Students & Families

Dear Parents and Carers,

Welcome to the penultimate edition of our newsletter on the last school day of November! Advent calendars at the ready...

As ever, we have some lovely festive treats planned over the next few weeks. It's not long until our production of Charlie and the Chocolate Factory. Our Christmas Shop opens on Monday - an event over the final 3 weeks to show children that hard work really does pay off - they've been saving their visas to spend on lovely gifts for families and friends. A huge thank you to everyone who has donated lovely bits and pieces so our whole community is able to enjoy Christmas.

Miss Burrows has also launched the Form Advent so everyone will celebrate the countdown to Christmas in their tutor groups too. We also have students visiting the dress rehearsal of the Norwich Theatre Royal pantomime. Other surprises will be in store between now and 19th December - watch this space.

Tomorrow is the first of our big festive events as the hard work of Mrs Gallagher and her team comes to fruition with the Ormiston Victory Christmas Fair. Please come and join us for this lovely (and free) annual event at the academy.

Thank you to everyone who has followed the guidance in my letter regarding driving into the site to drop children off in the morning and waiting at the end of the day to collect at 3pm.

Unfortunately, some families have ignored this and continue to drive in - some at high speed. Please write to us if there is a reason you must drive in thorough the gates - we will be issuing passes for those who need it most for mobility reasons/very high level SEND needs. Please do not ignore the system we have introduced as it's unfair on those who are trying to help us keep the site safe.

Please remember that this coming Friday, 5th December, we have an OAT Trust Training Day so the academy is closed to pupils. A small group of students have been invited in to complete controlled assessments and they will be aware as parents will be informed.

Thank you all for your support - enjoy December.

RSC First Encounters: King Lear - Pre-Show Workshop

On the 20th November, a class of Year 7 Performing Arts students were lucky enough to be selected to take part in a pre-show workshop with a practitioner from the Royal Shakespeare Company, before the touring production of King Lear arrived at the academy on Tuesday, 25th November.

Nyasha, from the RSC, was an incredible practitioner for the two-hour workshop and found some interesting ways to hook the students into Shakespeare, even staging their predictions for what happens next in the story.
